ARCHETTO

Sophisticated Living In Woodbridge

Archetto is a collection of 91 beautifully curated townhome residences encircling a community parkette at Pine Valley Drive and Major Mackenzie. Surrounded by lush trails and greenspace and close to all of the amenities of Woodbridge, this intimate and charming collection of townhomes features lavish details, high ceilings, and airy interiors adding sophisticated refinement to everyday life.

Rendering is artist's concept. 9909 & 9970 Pine Valley Drive and 4433 & 4405 Major Mackenzie has been removed from the rendering. E.&O.E.

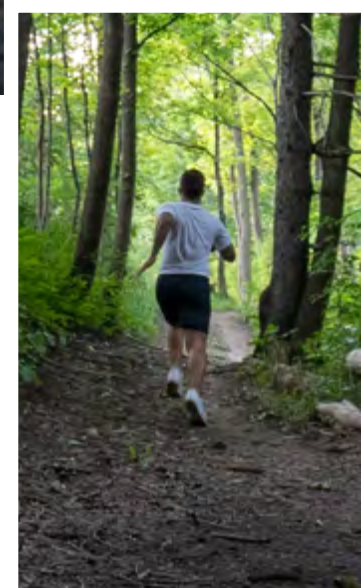

A sense of rhythmic elegance connects these fine homes to Woodbridge's green belt; where verdant trees and flourishing nature provide a prestigious urban haven for families, nature lovers, and for all those who desire a life that is a cut above.

Where active living is as natural as a breath of fresh air.

Moments away from multiple parks and trails such as William Granger Greenway, the Kortright Centre and Boyd Conservation area, life at Archetto can be as active as you choose. Here residents can hike, bike, paddle, cross country ski or revel in the endless outdoor adventures just steps from your door.

Glassco Park

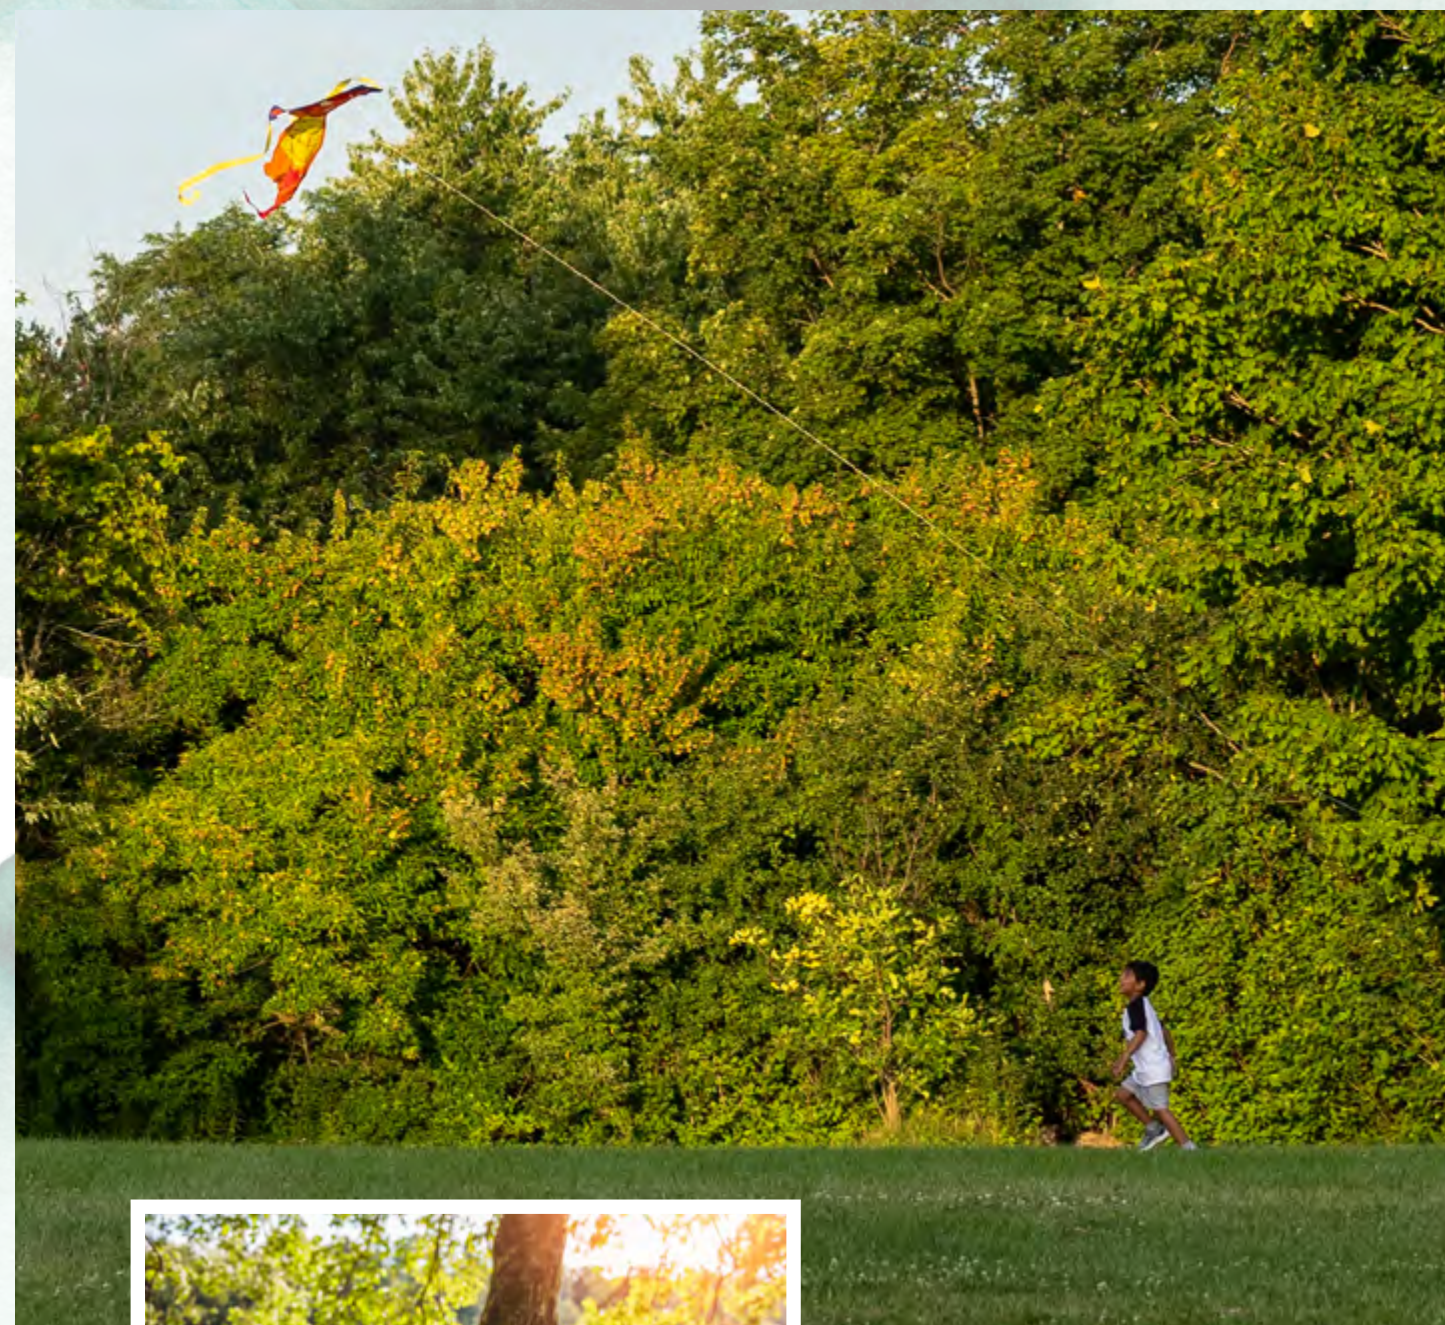

With approximately 200-acres of parkland, there is plenty of space to explore. The William Granger Greenway, located within the park, features 5.7 km of groomed trails, inviting you to walk, run, or explore. Located off Rutherford Road just east of Islington, this trail is just minutes from Archetto.

Boyd Nature Reserve

The home of The Kortright Centre for Conservation, this venue offers more than 50 environmental education courses as well as 30 different workshops focused on sustainability. It's also a favourite spot for bird-watching with sightings of warblers, owls and raptors.

Boyd Conservation Park

This park consists of 2.5 km of trails along the Humber River, 19 different picnic sites and beautiful forested areas, make this park a popular place for family BBQs. Hike through the forest, play on green spaces along the Humber River or simply enjoy the peace and serenity of this quiet refuge located just moments away from Archetto.

Where Foodies Find Fabulous Fare!

Woodbridge is a gastronomic hub! Every manner of cuisine is available in a truly impressive collection of restaurants and eateries. Whether you choose to dine-in or dine-out, the choices are endless.

Right | Avenue Cibi e Vini

Avenue is the ideal place to enjoy the night out with friends and family. Long considered Kleinburg's premier dining destination, Avenue delivers mouth-watering menu selections and an excellent wine list.

10519 Islington Avenue
905-893-7400

Belisto Trattoria-Vino

Created by Chef Gino Guercio and lovingly named for his ancestral home, Belisto is an urban old-world Italian restaurant serving traditional Italian fare with a contemporary touch. Menu highlights include baccala fritto alla belsitese (salted cod with a warm tomato, caper & chive salsa) and orecchiette alla Calabrese, "Napoléon" di filetto di manzo (8oz. Alberta Black Angus filet mignon layered with rosti potatoes & grilled asparagus, barolo red wine jus) and much more!

10429 Islington Avenue
905-552-7555

Old Firehall Confectionery

Old-time favourites like homemade fudge, candy apples, sponge toffee and truffles are found here. Also, their locally employed chocolatiers specialize in hand painted truffles, chocolates and classic confections that have won multiple awards over the years.

10449 Islington Avenue
905-552-3473

Motorino

Like a scene out of a classic Italian movie, Motorino features a sleek and comfy modern design. Motorino sources all ingredients and carefully incorporates the best flavours into each and every dish offering the freshest and highest quality menus and weekly chef's specials. Motorino is not Italian inspired, it's Italian made.
